	MATION REPO	RT DIED NO.
		A
NTRY	Poland " Tong	DATE DISTR. 26 March	1954 25)
JECT	Prevailing Conditions and Attitude of the Marsau Populace	NO OF PAGES 1	ILLEC
E UHRED	£ .a →♥	NO. OF ENCLS.
E OF).		SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.
			25 X 1
		61951 ⁹
 			. 7
the strength
TATE CATING P	THIS IS A SAME AS A SAME A SA	S UNEVALUATED INFORMATION
R OF US FORT CHIMITED BY L	Tarts to de articley or an unautrodizer casson aw tree sermodul/non or this roth is production		25 X ²
	The alight improve	ment of their living standard	Soviets. out- had 25
De wa ha th ou	the Poles had put up with the Poles had put up with the Poles had put up with the radly hardly conspicuous. The slight improve ad a favorable effect on the Poles. Although the country against the Soviets, the Polish Gout overt hostility against the Soviets. Anyhoccount of the experiences made in the last traiting attitude.	tude of the Poles toward the Some Soviet dominion, which was soment of their living standard there still was latent hostill overnment had succeeded in room it was a fact that the Pole	Soviets. out- had 25 ity in ting es, on t and wa ha th	the Poles had put up with a radly hardly conspicuous. The slight improve ad a favorable effect on the Poles. Although he country against the Soviets, the Polish Gout overt hostility against the Soviets. Anyhoccount of the experiences made in the last to	tude of the Poles toward the Some Soviet dominion, which was dement of their living standard there still was latent hostill overnment had succeeded in rootow, it was a fact that the Polewo years, had adopted a prudent	Soviets. Dut- had 25 ity in ting es, on t and
De wa ha th ou ac wa	the Poles had put up with a radly hardly conspicuous. The slight improve ad a favorable effect on the Poles. Although he country against the Soviets, the Polish Go it overt hostility against the Soviets. Anyho count of the experiences made in the last the siting attitude. ently completed: "We Poles would not have ere tyle. However, it was the demand of the Soviets show window to the West". Regarding the polishow window to the West". Regarding the polishow window to the West".	an imposing building at such a gest, which intend to make Varstitude of the still was latent hostilitude overnment had succeeded in room ow, it was a fact that the Polewo years, had adopted a prudent an imposing building the still situation.	Soviets. Dut- had 25 ity in ting es, on t and 25 ng re- rand 25 aw their ars.
De wa ha th ou ac was	the Poles had put up with a radly hardly conspicuous. The slight improve ad a favorable effect on the Poles. Although as country against the Soviets, the Polish Go it overt hostility against the Soviets. Anyhor count of the experiences made in the last traiting attitude. ently completed: We Poles would not have erectyle, However, it was the Beautiful the political and the soviets.	ene Soviet dominion, which was objected their living standard there still was latent hostill overnment had succeeded in room to the standard there at the follow years, had adopted a prudent an imposing building the standard this building in such a grate, which intend to make Wars tical situation. The for at least three more years the time being and were not	coviets. put- had 25 ity in ting es, on t and 25 ng re- rand 25 aw their ars. in a pc_25
De wa ha th ou ac was	the Poles had put up with a radly hardly conspicuous. The slight improve ad a favorable effect on the Poles. Although as country against the Soviets, the Polish Go it overt hostility against the Soviets. Anyhor count of the experiences made in the last the siting attitude. ently consoleted: "We Poles would not have ere tyle. However, it was the demand of the Soviets. The Poles expected beace to continue to the Poles expected beace to continue to the Poles expected beace to continue the Soviets did not want a war for the Poles expected beace to continue the Soviets did not want a war for the Poles expected beace to continue the Soviets did not want a war for the Poles expected beace to continue to the Soviets did not want a war for the Poles expected beace to continue the Soviets did not want a war for the Poles expected beace to continue the Soviets did not want a war for the Soviets and the Poles expected beace to continue the Soviets and the Poles expected beace to continue the Soviets and the Poles expected beace to continue the Soviets and the Poles expected beace to continue the Soviets and the Poles expected beace to continue the Soviets and the Poles expected beach the	ene Soviet dominion, which was objected their living standard there still was latent hostill overnment had succeeded in room to the standard there at the follow years, had adopted a prudent an imposing building the standard this building in such a grate, which intend to make Wars tical situation. The for at least three more years the time being and were not	coviets. put- had 25 ity in ting es, on t and 25 ng re- rand 25 aw their ars. in a pc_25
De wa ha the ou ac we	the Poles had put up with a radly hardly conspicuous. The slight improve ad a favorable effect on the Poles. Although as country against the Soviets, the Polish Go it overt hostility against the Soviets. Anyhor count of the experiences made in the last the siting attitude. ently consoleted: "We Poles would not have ere tyle. However, it was the demand of the Soviets. The Poles expected beace to continue to the Poles expected beace to continue to the Poles expected beace to continue the Soviets did not want a war for the Poles expected beace to continue the Soviets did not want a war for the Poles expected beace to continue the Soviets did not want a war for the Poles expected beace to continue to the Soviets did not want a war for the Poles expected beace to continue the Soviets did not want a war for the Poles expected beace to continue the Soviets did not want a war for the Soviets and the Poles expected beace to continue the Soviets and the Poles expected beace to continue the Soviets and the Poles expected beace to continue the Soviets and the Poles expected beace to continue the Soviets and the Poles expected beace to continue the Soviets and the Poles expected beach the	ene Soviet dominion, which was objected their living standard there still was latent hostill overnment had succeeded in room to the standard there at the follow years, had adopted a prudent an imposing building the standard this building in such a grate, which intend to make Wars tical situation. The for at least three more years the time being and were not	had 25 ity in ting es, on t and 25 ng re- rand 25 aw their ars. in a pc25)

